At the request of the Deputy Solicitor General, Community Safety at the Ministry of Solicitor General, I am sharing a communication regarding the Inspector General of Policing. Ryan Teschner has been named Ontario's Inspector General of Policing (Assistant Deputy Minister, Inspectorate of Policing), effective March 27, 2023.

Ryan has been the Executive Director and Chief of Staff of the Toronto Police Services Board since 2018, leading some of the most important changes in the organization's history, including in the areas of governance modernization and policing reform.

He is a nationally recognized and experienced executive leader in community safety, police governance and public administration. Ryan has many years of progressive and successful experience in large, challenging, complex and multi-stakeholder environments.

On behalf of the Deputy Solicitor General, Community Safety, the ministry thanks Ken Weatherill for his leadership and support as the interim Inspector General of Policing and Deputy Inspector General over the past two years. Ken has led the establishment and operationalization of the Inspectorate of Policing during this time. He will continue this important work as Deputy Inspector General of Policing and help to ensure a smooth transition.
