Why Attend?

The Canadian Association for the Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (CACOLE) 2023 Annual Professional Development Conference will be hosted in beautiful Halifax, Nova Scotia on May 29 – 31, 2023.

Who should attend?

- civilian police oversight agencies
- police professional standards
- police unions
- defense lawyers
- law students
- media
- government officials responsible for policing
- community agencies

Attendees will have the opportunity to learn from the experiences of their peers and subject matter experts, foster new relationships and share best practices. This conference is a great opportunity to stay current on the latest developments in police oversight and to engage in meaningful dialogue with police oversight professionals from across Canada.

This year's panellists will discuss a number of topics, including:

- cultural implications for the public complaint process & review decisions;
- trauma-informed investigation techniques;
- community policing;
- neurodiversity; and
- challenges for police oversight in Canada.

Participants will have the option to attend virtually or in person and all presentations will be recorded and made available after the conference.

Join us in Halifax and don't miss out on this unique opportunity.
