INFORMATION

The Canadian Association of Police Governance (CAPG) is a national non-profit association formed in 1989 in response to a need for information exchange, education and advocacy for members of Canadian municipal police governing bodies, including First Nations police governing authorities.

The CAPG provides a vehicle for the collection and sharing of information, and a forum for the discussion of matters relevant to policing in Canada. As the voice of police boards and commissions across the country, the CAPG also represents its members' views to the federal government.

Vision: To be a trusted partner in delivering public safety.

Mission: To serve and protect in partnership with our communities.

Our Values: Compassionate, Dedicated, Inclusive, Integrity, Innovative, Professional, Teamwork

The CAPG provides a unique opportunity for various stakeholder groups to come together in the spirit of collaboration, knowledge exchange and continuous professional development, all towards the improvement of public safety in Canada.

Membership fees are dependent on the size of the Service organization the Board is responsible for governing.

ALTERNATIVES FOR CONSIDERATION

- The Board may decide not to support CAPG membership.
